

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 202 – HB 703

February 26, 2009

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires all information and records that are directly related to the security of any state or local government building be maintained as confidential and not open for public inspection.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease State Revenue – Not Significant
Decrease State Expenditures – Not Significant

Decrease Local Revenue – Not Significant
Decrease Local Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- Based on responses from multiple state departments and agencies, any decrease to state revenue resulting from fees charged for copies of open records is considered not significant.
- Based on responses from multiple state departments and agencies, any decrease to state expenditures resulting from handling fewer open records requests is considered not significant.
- Based on responses from the Municipal Technical Advisory Service (MTAS), the County Technical Assistance Service (CTAS), and the Comptroller, any decrease of local government revenue as a result of fewer fees charged or expenditures resulting from fewer open records requests is considered not significant.
